

CON Review Panel

Associations

Randy Lee	President of the largest nursing home association in SC for 26 yrs.; Gained experience in development of legislation and regulations as a former staff member of the Legislature for 8 yrs.; Associate Adjunct Professor in USC School of Public Health.
Scott Hultstrand	As General Counsel & Director of Legislative Affairs for the SC Medical Association, he has been involved with multiple revisions to the CON statute, working with DHEC, legislators, physician groups and the SCHA.
Timothy R Rogers	CEO of SC Home Care & Hospice Association and the Association for Home & Hospice Care of NC; 18 yrs experience in Home Care and Hospice Industry, incl. past 10 yrs as CEO; Served as the National Chairman of the Forum of State Associations of Home and Hospice Care from 2005-2009; Member of the National Association for Home Care & Hospice's Board of Directors; Served as member of the NC State Health Coordinating Council from 2003-2009 and helped develop the NC Annual State Medical Facilities Plan.
Danny Sanford	CEO of Still Hopes Episcopal Retirement Community; Actively worked in the senior living profession for 25 years. Served as the administrator for skilled nursing facilities and assisted living facilities; worked with 100% Medicaid and 100% private pay population.

Business Perspective

Martin Storey	Director of Benefits at Michelin North America (Greenville); very active on the SC Hospital Association Re-engineering Committee which is evaluating the impact of healthcare reform across various healthcare settings.
Lewis Gossett	President and CEO of the SC Manufacturer's Alliance. Served as Director of the SC Department of Labor for 4 years.

CON Attorneys

Kathy McKinney	Served as President of the National Association of Bond Lawyers. Serves as bond counsel for many of SC's leading hospitals. In the past 5 years, has been bond counsel for more than 100 revenue bond issues, resulting in $3 billion of capital investment in SC.
Elizabeth Crum	30 years experience with primary focus in Health Care and extensive representation of a diverse range of health providers both in seeking CON's and in opposing CON's during the review process. Served as a member of the SC Bar Association's Health Law Section.

CON Consultants

Dan Sullivan	30 years of experience in performing health planning and financial consultation; has provided planning assistance in all southeastern states with CON programs and to some that have eliminated CON regulations.
Robin Gage	Has over 10 years of experience preparing CONs in SC, GA, FL, MS, TN, NC; has ability to compare and evaluate South Carolina's CON process and regulations against the same in other states; Senior Consultant at Research & Planning Consultants (RPC). RPC has been providing CON services nationally since 1981.
Doug Bowling	VP of System Development at Roper St. Francis Health Care; currently serves on the State Health Planning Committee; brings experience from working in similar roles in other states.

CON Planner

Mark Lyles, MD	Currently serves as Chief Strategic Officer for the MUSC Clinical Enterprise; he is responsible for setting MUSC's organizational priorities and guiding development of an academic medical center; he is Board Certified in Internal Medicine and fellowship trained in Quality Management and Managed Care; he is an elected Officer for the American College of Medical Quality.
----------------	---

DHEC Board Member

Dr. Ann Kirol	SC DHEC Board member
---------------	----------------------

Elected Officials

Senator Ray Cleary	Served on Joint Legislative CON Study Committee in 2006 and has remained interested in the process.
Senator Brad Hutto	Served on Joint Legislative CON Study Committee in 2006 and has remained interested in the process.
Senator Kevin Bryant	Pharmacists; currently serves on Senate Medical Affairs; has served in the senate since 2005; and has shown interest in CON requirements.
Rep. Murrell Smith, Jr.	Served on Joint Legislative CON Study Committee in 2006 and has remained interested in the process.

Facilities

Mitch Mongell	CEO of Colleton Medical Center; extensive experience in multiple hospitals in Florida which has a very different CON system; brings perspective of a small rural hospital in a larger system of care, including Summerville Trident hospitals.
George Zara	President & CEO of Providence Hospitals; has held numerous healthcare positions during his career, one of which was at St. Anthony's Hospital in Denver, CO, a state without a CON program.
Ann Margaret McCraw	CEO of Midlands Orthopedic; extensive experience with physician-related policy matters and with CON.

Insurance Company/Reimbursementers of Healthcare Services

Will Schrader	Senior Vice President of Blue Cross Blue Shield of SC; has been involved in numerous health policy issues for BCBS.
---------------	---

Academic

Amanda Williams, MHA	Clinical Instructor and Masters Program Coordinator for USC Arnold School of Public Health; member of SC Public Health Consortium; serves as faculty advisor for the Health Executive Student Association (HESA) and the Institute for Healthcare Improvement Open School (IHIOS) chapter at USC. Prior senior planning analyst at Palmetto Health from 2004-2007; Manager of planning and system development for Palmetto Health in 2007. She brings both an academic and practice point of view to the committee.
----------------------	---

Consumer Perspective

Graham Adams, PHD	CEO of SC Office of Rural Health; As CEO, Dr. Adams works with a diverse group of rural providers, including physicians and hospitals. The rural perspective is very important in this committee.
-------------------	---